Phoenix Theater, Danielson.

Heretofore hunt pictures have been made with animals in captivity or trained so as not to be dangerous, but the film to be shown at the Phoenix tonight presents something new in the line of wild animal shows.

In the making of this picture the operator joined the hunting party and followed the actual work of catching Bruin, taking views until the party returned to camp. The exciting chase is produced on the screen with amazing fineness and numerous thrills are offered before the beast is killed. The hunt takes place in the Colorado Rockies, and the scenic background to the picture is unsurpassed.

Another fine Biograph and a thriller from end to end is A Dive for Life. This picture reproduces a race beer from end to end is a Dive for Life.

This picture reproduces a race between a railroad train and a powerful auto, combining in its sensational circumstances one of the most exciting reals yet produced. Many more attractive subjects. These pictures this (Saturday) evening only.

BREED THEATER.

The Mexican's Faith," Thrilling Cowboy Picture.

One of the most exciting and thereughly realistic cowbov pictures ever made is the feature at the Breed theafer for the last half of this week, and fer for the last half of this week, and last evening was shown to a large and delighted audience. It is a wonderfully beautiful piece of motion picture photography, perfect in every detail, and carrying one of the brightest picts of the day. The horsemanship and scenery in particular are especially worthy of mention. For variety of scenes and brilliancy of color values, it is indeed doubtful if this picture has an equal as it by far excels anything it is indeed doubtful if this picture has an equal, as it by far excels anything of its kind seen here this season.

The Biograph comedy, entitled The Newlyweds, is a screaming farce and deals with the collision of a traveling man and a little girl who is coming from the store with a bag of rice, in which the bag is burst, and the rice spilled, the enraged child throwing a handful at the man, where it lodges on his hatbrim. On the train he meets an attractive young lady and sits with her on the trip. The other passengers notice the rice and presume that they are newly wed, and every conceivable wedding send-off is given them, much to their chagrin.

Mr. Ray sings the beautiful picture hallad, The Moonlight, the Rose and Ton, winning a hearty encore, later singing, Be Joily, Molly.

THE AUDITORIUM

The Horseshoe trio, vaudeville's bigest laughing act, direct from the big Seith & Proctor houses, will headline he bill at the Auditorium for the full week of March 28. It is a rough and tumble knockabout turn which is a great laugh producer. Special scenery and effects are carried with this act. Victor Shaker, "the world's most wonderful boy ventriloquist," will entertain with his little figures for the first three days next week, with O'Rourke and O'Rourke, two very clever come-dians, a close second in the comedy entertaining line, Richards and Steele, two exceptionally good wire performers, will do many daring stunts on the tight and slack wire. They also introduce much good, clean comedy in their turn so the show on the whole will be a very funny one with many a hearty laugh.

Miss Morrelle will render a catchy flustrated song and the Auditorium due will sing a high class ballad. The motion pictures will be clear, steady and new.

Cold Storage Eggs.

Some of those eggs now going into cold atorage may never come out reserve in the Bank of England, as a part of the capital stock of the cold storage concern. In some future geological era, as they are dug up, the experimenters of the day can have great fun seeing whether or not they will batch out.-Chicago News.

Insisted on Wedding Veil. This from Servia: "The parish priest of Nish refused to perform the wedding ceremony for Peter Golubovitch and Mara Hetnar in Belgrade cathedral because the bride wore a hat instead of the traditional veil. The shops being closed, it was impossible to procure a veil and a substitute was finally improvised from a lace cur-

To Our Poor Relations.

There is no way a woman can be so sweet to poor relations in the country as to send them a package of old clothes by freight, with a postal card teiling of the thing, so that everybody in the village will have the news of the expected second-hand clothes before the postal card gets out of the postoffice.-New York Times.

Patient's Grave Mistake.

"So you're feeling perfectly well again, and never touched the medicine I gave you, eh? You made a grave mistake, Mrs. Tibbs, a grave mistake." "How so, doctor?" "Why, if you'd taken my medicine, you'd have known what cured you, and, as it is, you haven't the least idea."-Life.

Wants a Ham Sandwich Mine. Really, we cannot fully express our pleasure at the discovery of a new diamond field in South Africa. Now, if a ham sandwich mine, near enough to Macon for our children to work in, could be located, our happiness would be complete.-Macon News.

Fate of the First Reformer.

The first reformer in any movement has to meet with such a hard opposition and gets so battered and bespattered that afterward, when people find they have to accept his reform, they will accept it more easily from another man.-Lincoln.

Enthusiasm.

Nothing is so contagious as enthusiasm. It is the real allegory of the tale of Orpheus. It moves stones, it charms brutes. Enthusiasm is the genius of sincerity and truth accomplishes no victories without it.-Bulwer Lytton.

EASTER BELLS.

Hark, I hear the Easter joy-bells Calling, failing, ringing, singing, "Christ is risen." Bells are penling, "Silver-sweet the story bringing.

What forms are these that shrinks away
While Easter bells are ringing?
Sad grief and guilt and black despair
Flee at the joyous singing. And who are these so fair and bright Who greet their Lord with singing? Giad Hope and Love and tranquil Faith, While Easter bells are ringing.

And He, our Lord, all veiled in light, To Him sweet tribute bringing— To Jesus Christ, our risen Lord— The Easter bells are ringing.

Exult, ye bells, and praise His name, While morning stars are singing—
Our Lord has conquered sin and death—
Glad Easter bells are ringing.
—Mary G. Dix.

WHAT LIFE 18.

Sleep is not death, only like it. We Sleep is not death, only like it. We say,
One wakes from sleep; but wakes not one from death.
Once born to Life we cannot die. The breath
God gives to us is to Eternity.
There is a Life beyond what men call life;
This earthly flesh seems firm and strong—but seems,
Not is—the grave proves that. Our very dreams
Deceive us, for we think their joy and strife
Are real—until we wake; then we know all. The ladder Jacob saw we climb each The ladder Jacob saw we climb each day, Bach step we take brings Heaven near.
How small,
How stupid, is the cry of those who say,
"Life ends where it began." Ah! Life is Love,
And Love the all in all below, above!
